OUR COMMITMENT

L.Woods believes that the origin of your food says a lot about the quality and flavor. Food from better sources simply tastes better. That's why we buy seasonal produce from local farmers, and serve only heirloom pork and all natural, antibiotic-free chicken that's raised on family farms. Getting food from sources that are respectful to the environment is important to L.Woods, which is why only locally roasted Intelligensia coffee is offered, and bottled water is not.
